

Article 29 – Processing under the authority of the controller or processor

Our sub-contractors and suppliers cannot use the personal information of the people who use our services, carers and our employees for purposes beyond what we have instructed them to do unless the task is required by UK law. Otherwise, it is a breach of contract and the Data Protection Legislation.